CODE OF CONDUCT

TEACHERS AND THEIR PROFESSION

The contribution that the teaching profession makes to society is significant.

Whoever accepts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself / herself as per the ideals of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education that have already been set forth and which he / she seek to inculcate among students must be his / her own ideals. Teachers should be caring, fair, and committed to the best interest of the students. He shall acknowledge and respect the uniqueness, individuality, and specific needs of students and promote their holistic development. He should be committed towards values like equality and inclusion and to respecting and accommodating diversity including those differences arising from gender, civil status, family status, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, race, ethnicity, etc.

A teacher should take pride in having joined the teaching profession and under no circumstances should express his / her disregard for the profession by repenting his/her decision.

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR TEACHERS

- A teacher shall comply with the provisions of the Act, Government Resolutions, Statues, Ordinance, Regulations, Rules, Circulars, and other directions issued thereunder from time to time by the University and the Central and the State Government.
- A teacher shall not in the course of his/her duties disobey, disregard, or willfully default in carrying out any lawful instructions, reasonable orders, or directives given by any person or body having authority to give such lawful instructions, reasonable orders, or directives. A teacher shall not refuse to carry out the academic and administrative decisions taken by the management of the institution.
