Criteria 6: Governance, Leadership and Management

Metric No. : 6.4.3

Metric Title: Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

The College is a private institute and is managed by the Sharda Education Society. The appointment for the vacant post of the teaching and non-teaching staff is done by the Management. The fees are collected from the students as per the guidelines of the Government, the University of Mumbai and the Bar Council of India. To meet the expenses of the regular functioning of the College which include salaries, examinations, books, etc. the funds of the college are utilized. In the case of additional expenses, the funds are roped by the Management from the Trust A/c.

Optimal utilization- The human and physical resources are optimally utilized. The faculty divides up the workload, which includes lectures, exam responsibility, and paper review. The administrative department is responsible for handling admissions and keeping track of administrative information. When not in use, the campus's classrooms and auditoriums are rented to outside organizations, both governmental and non-governmental, for events like exams.

Additionally, sustainability practices, such as renewable energy adoption and recycling initiatives, contribute to cost reduction while promoting environmental responsibility. These strategies, underpinned by transparent
